

COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE SUPERIOR TOWNSHIP – “One Superior Place” Meeting August 19, 2020

Remarks and Announcements – Brenda Baker, Carla Bisaro and Nancy Caviston attended; no regrets were received. Brenda informed us of an addition to the agenda.

Library Display/Bookmarks/Superior Places Binders – The Natural Beauty Roads poster remains in the closed Superior Township Branch Library; all three Superior Places binders continue to be up-to-date, and a selection of Superior Places bookmarks, as well as one of the Superior Places binders, remains in the Township lobby.

Internet/Website – There was little use of the Township website reported beyond checking for election results. Direction to Superior Places on the website is suggested in our Superior Scenes article.

New Resident Welcome Packet – The Township business listing is the only item missing from our completion of the new resident welcome packet. After the disruption by the coronavirus pandemic and an election, we will seek that business list again.

Newsletter Article for Fall Superior Scenes – Carla presented a first draft of our newsletter submission. Revisions will be sent to the Committee before the article is sent on to the Township.

Superior Places – After the interruption of a cancelled meeting, attention returned to the Birdwatching and Muddy Acres profiles. Bookmarks for those subjects have also been submitted for consideration. Other remaining Superior Places will be addressed as time and interest allow.

Events, Outreach and Community Pride – We noted that the “Where Do You Live?” poster is still on display in the Township vestibule, but we have not had occasion to visit at the Dixboro Farmers’ Market. Brenda commented that the Township marquee is currently fully utilized with coronavirus health guidelines.

Interface with Township Regarding Community Identity – Brenda noted that most communications from Township departments, excepting the Clerk’s office, carry an Ypsilanti return address. With three ZIP codes in the Township, our goal is to emphasize a Superior Township return address on all Township mail.

Committee Development and Committee Business – These agenda items were not addressed.

Schedule Next Meeting – The next meeting is scheduled via Zoom for 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 16, 2020.
