

ELECTION UPDATE FROM CLERK FINDLEY

2020 was an extremely busy year for elections. This year (2021) we have not had any elections and will not have one in November. This is the first year since I took office five years ago, that the Charter Township of Superior has not had at least one election.

Please see the election schedule for next year. Rest assured that we will have elections next August and November. Please see the following information regarding elections below:
