

DIXBORO is an active, friendly village, three miles east of US 23 on Plymouth Road in Superior Township. It was founded by a retired sea captain, John Dix.

CELEBRATION EVENTS

Friday, August 2nd

- An open Farmer's Market with diverse food and crafts plus live music;
- Kid friendly activities, i.e. a Bounce House & games;
- Fireworks at 9 p.m.

Saturday, August 3rd

- Speaker Dan Manning presentations;
- Classes in blacksmithing, woodworking plus craft demonstrations by the Michigan Folk School;
- Tai Chi Demonstration;
- Kid friendly activities continue – bounce house;
- Local business booths and diverse live music performances; and
- Dedication of a Dixboro historic marker.

Sunday, August 4th Dixboro United Methodist Church morning outdoor worship – Anniversary Celebration cake cut and shared. Thank you!

info@dixborofarmersmarket.org

August 2-4, 2024

Public, eventful bicentennial anniversary celebration centered on the village square (Village Green) on Plymouth Road, features family fun activities, Michigan Folk School classes, live music, historical displays and a noted speaker, Dan Manning, the husband of a Dix family member, in a free lecture about the evolution of the unique burg

Dan Manning